GOUT IS TROUBLING IMPRISONED DAUDITOR

Sheriff Says Making Little Ones of Big Ones Is Fine for Disease of Millionaires

*****
"Hilo, Hawaii, June 16, 1913.
"I hereby certify that Charles K. Maguire has been at times for the past few years under my treatment for gout, seriously affecting his joints and causing his confinement to bed.
"I cannot consider him fitted for hard labor of any kind."
(Signed)
"C. L. STOW,
"M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.W.,
"County Physician."
*****

The above communication, purporting to come from County Physician C. L. Stow of Hawaii, was handed to Attorney General Thayer yesterday by High Sheriff Henry. It was brought to Honolulu by Dayton Jones, the deputy sheriff who has been in charge of the volcano jail, where Hawaii county's defaulting auditor, Charles K.
Maguire, dwells at present.

Uncertain as to what action should be taken on the letter, Jones brought it down with him a few days ago from the Big Island when he returned to resume his duties at Oahu prison.
John H. Maby, former county jailer at Hilo, who was ousted by the last board of supervisors last fall, has been appointed to succeed Jones as jailer at the volcano penal colony and took up his duties there on Tuesday, July 1.

To those familiar with the situation Dr. Stow's letter contains a large vein of unconscious humor, and public officials who saw the document this morning smiled broadly.

"If that is actually Dr. Stow's handwork he is to be congratulated for his nerve," laughed one man. "That Maguire should admit defalcations running up to $60,000 or $70,000 is bad enough, but to further confess through the county physician that he acquired gout at Hawaii county's expense is rubbing it in."

Before the change in the head of the volcano jail was made stories came out of Hilo to the effect that Maguire and Lyman, another former county official confined in that institution, were receiving unusual and unnecessary liberties. In placing Maby in charge the high sheriff hoped to see these rumors at rest definitely, for it is said that Maby and the former county officials bore no mutual love when they were in the official family together. Now, it is presumed, Maby will not risk his territorial job by permitting infamings of the prison regulations by these men.

To make certain on this point, however, High Sheriff Henry is sending Jailer Maby a letter concerning the Dr. Stow document. Maby knew nothing of it when he took charge Tuesday but his instructions are to be unequivocal.

GIANTS AND SOX WOULD PLAY HERE FOR MEASLY $3000

Baseball enthusiasts who have been looking forward to seeing the New York Giants and Chicago White Sox teams in action here, during the barnstorming tour of the Orient planned by the two clubs, are doomed to disappointment. A cable message was received this morning by the Hawaii Promotion Committee asking that body to guarantee $3,000 for a single game here, to be played November 17, during the stop-over of the liner on which the major league stars will travel to the Orient.

This figure is considered out of all reason by local baseball men. A. L.
Castle and a number of other enthusiasts held an impromptu meeting this morning, and decided that they couldn't take a chance on any $3,000 gate, especially as the promoters would have to take chances of rain.
Unless the Giants-White Sox combination cuts its figure about in half, Honolulu fans will not see the players in uniform.

More Hope From Caucus Duty Stands Till March

Democratic Senators Stand By Attitude of Finance Committee In Pending Bill.

[Special to the Star-Bulletin] WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The Democratic senate caucus today approved the action of the finance committee in an amendment to the tariff bill by which the existing duty on sugar will be maintained until March 1, 1914. The opposition to this change was withdrawn.

C. S. ALBERT.
Receipt of the above news from the Star-Bulletin's Washington correspondent early this afternoon was a distinct encouragement at the present stage of the fight against free-sugar. It is now regarded as practically settled that no change will be made in the sugar duty until March 1 of next year. There is a great deal of uncertainty as to whether the proposed free-sugar provision will become operative three years from next March or will become operative three years from the passage of the tariff-bill itself.

According to the latest information, sugar is to go on the free list on May 1, 1916.

CITY MAY HAVE OWN HOME FOR INCURABLES

Dr. Wayson Starts Movement for 'Tent City' for Tubercular Patients

Dr. James T. Wayson, city and county physician, started a movement at a meeting of the health committee of the supervisors last night, endorsed by the members of the committee, which, if effectuated, will mean the severance of the relation of the city and county and Leahi Home, to a large extent at least, and will also mean that the municipal government will own its sanitarium for incurable tuberculosis patients.
Out of the dispute over the appropriation for the Leahi Home, and the disagreement on the point of the number of patients the city and county is entitled to under its contract with the institution, the recommendation was made by Dr. Wayson, and concurred in by the members of the health committee, which has the matter of the appropriation for Leahi Home under consideration.

Speculation as to the cost of establishing a suitable tent sanitarium was indulged in. It was estimated that for $6000 the government could erect a sanitarium, patterned after the military one at Silver City, New

HAWAII PUTS BACK FOR THE SECOND TIME

With her canvas blown to ribbons, and her crew showing the effects of a strenuous battle with wind and wave, the yacht Hawaii limped into port shortly after noon today, after two unsuccessful attempts to make the run to Kahului. Four useless sails, blown into fluttering rags, and hours of hard labor, extending through the whole of last night, in bending a new mainsail, is the story of the Hawaii's voyage in brief.

Captain Tom King of the Hawaii, and his nifty crew of amateur tars started with the yachts Kamehameha and Mollolu at about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, on the annual race to the Maui port. It was just the weather for the Hawaii—a spanking breeze and a sea that made the yachtsmen know they were on the rolling deck, and made the lee rail a point of vantage for which a number contested.
Off Diamond Head the Hawaii's crew was optimistic as to the outcome of the race, for the Kam, although pointing higher, wasn't footing it nearly as fast as the trans-Pacific racer, while the Mollolu seemed to be anchored.

Then the baby jib topsail went into the rag bag. A few minutes later the mainsail began to rip and tear, and was soon useless for purposes of locomotion. There was nothing to do but return, and after dark the Hawaii came alongside of the Richards street wharf, where Captain Charles T.
Wildner, who was notified of the boat's return from Diamond Head, was on hand to offer assistance. He and Warren D. Wood made the trip to Pearl Harbor by motor, and there routed out a spare mainsail, with which they

COKE OPPOSED BY M'CANDLESS DEMOCRATS NOW

Mysterious Word from Washington Names Mainlander District Attorney

The Democratic "organization," so far as there is a territorial organization, is out to stop James L. Coke from getting the district attorneyship, and in order to do it, is likely to give at least tacit indorsement to a mainlander.

The fight is directed against Coke because he is alleged to have "thrown down" the McCandless forces in the gubernatorial campaign. Coke indubated Watson's application months ago and more recently the McCandless faction has felt that he was pretty active in furthering Watson's chances at Washington.

Watson returned from the mainland yesterday with the prediction that Coke will be appointed district attorney shortly, but that hasn't seemed to bother the Democratic territorial and county committeemen. They say that they have assurances from Washington that Coke will not be appointed, and it is conjectured that these assurances have come through National Committeemen Johnny Wilson.

Also, the McCandless men, who easily control both territorial and county committees, say that they have information that a mainlander will probably be appointed.

There are prospects of some pretty lively scrapping between various Democratic factions over the filling of federal offices. Watson is a supporter of Col. C. J. McCarthy for collector of customs, but McCarthy is quite likely to be opposed by other factions.

JUDGE COOPER SAILS FOR SOUTH SEA ISLE

With ample provisions for a cruise through the south seas to cover a period of several weeks, the schooner Luka, with Judge Henry E. Cooper and a party of invited guests aboard, sailed for Palmyra and Fanning islands this afternoon.

The Luka is expected to reach the Palmyras in about eight days with favorable winds and seas. The vessel is fitted with auxiliary power and a quantity of gasoline was placed on board before the sailing hour.

It is the intention to erect a number of dwellings on the island estate of Judge Cooper and for this purpose a shipment of lumber and material was included in the freight list. A crew of seven will look after the management of the trim little schooner.

Those departing for Palmyra this afternoon included Judge H. E. Cooper, Territorial Botanist J. F. Rock and C.
Montague Cooke.

AVIATION SCHOOL PLANNED

Local Troops Will Be Put Through Paces and Taught Art of Flying

By C. S. ALBERT

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.— News that the war department is to send a squad of trained flyingmen to Hawaii may mean more than the mere transfer of three army aviators from San Diego to Oahu. It may mean that a school of aviation is to be established in Hawaii, and that aviators will be developed there to form a strong corps of aerial scouts, both for offensive and defensive purposes.

It is stated here that a number of pupils will be selected from troops now stationed in the islands, to be taught the art of aviation. They will be carefully trained in the use of bi-planes, and the number of machines furnished will hereafter be increased when a sufficient degree of proficiency has been attained by the pupils.
The opinion is expressed that in the near future aviation in connection with military movements in Hawaii will become a feature of exceptional importance.

PLAN TO RAISE A PERMANENT C. E. FUND

Hawaiian Board Concludes Its Ninety-first Annual Session Today

Voting to raise $10,000 as a permanent fund for the Christian Endeavor Association of Hawaii, delegates representing that branch of the work for the different churches throughout the islands, were in attendance this morning at the last session of the ninety-first annual conference of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association and outlined plans which bid fair to materialize into one of the largest money-raising campaigns ever undertaken by the association in recent years.

Realizing the vast amount of work which has been done by the Christian Endeavor during the past few years and the need of a permanent fund with which to carry on this work, Rev. Akaike Akana presented his plans for raising the money before the delegates, saying that if Oahu, Maui, Hawaii and Kauai would guarantee to raise $9000, that he would himself raise the remaining $1000.
His plan met with instant approval and a motion to this effect was unanimously passed. The articles of association which will govern the raising of the money were drawn up by Rev. Akana and read at the meeting.

While the business of the conference was practically completed yesterday afternoon, the session this morning was given over to the reading of the reports of the Christian Endeavor delegates, the reports numbering more than seventy-five. Following this, the Hawaiian Evangelist Association and the Christian Endeavor Association joined in a closing praise service during which time Rev. W. B. Oleson, corresponding secretary of the former organization, declared that the prince is now on the way to recovery.

THE "GOOD OLD DAYS"

JULY 4.
BY MISS MILDA WADDELL. ILLUSTRATED BY WILLIAM.
I used to look ahead for weeks To the 'Day We Celebrate'.
I'd think of all the fun I'd have Till I could hardly wait.

But when the day was done, and I Was bandaged up, I'd say—
"I've lost my ears and half my nose, But 'twas a glorious Day!"

Prince Katsura, Former Premier, Is Critically Ill

CANCER OF STOMACH IS BOTHERING JAPANESE STATESMAN

(Special Cable to Nippu Jiji.) TOKIO, July 2.—Prince Taro Katsura, the former premier who was forced out of office by his opponents a few months ago, is now critically ill at his country home at Hayamaru.
Much alarm is felt over his condition.
The disease from which the prince is suffering is reported to be cancer of the stomach.

MEMORIAL FOR MEIJI TENNO

(Special Cable to Nippu Jiji.) TOKIO, July 2.—The commemoration day of the Meiji Tenno, the former ruler of Japan, will be fittingly observed throughout the empire on the first anniversary of his death, July 30th.

Baron Sakatani, the mayor of Tokio, has appointed a special committee to complete necessary arrangements to make the ceremony an affair solemn and impressive. The committee's plan is to build at Aoyama a huge hall of worship in which the citizens will pray for the soul of the dead emperor.

A day before the commemoration day the city council of Tokio will vote on resolutions of sympathy and love.
The resolutions will be presented to the emperor and empress.

SPECIAL ENVOY TO JAPAN

(Special Cable to Nippu Jiji.) TOKIO, July 2.—Special envoy and his suite carrying messages of Yuan Shih Kai, the provisional president of the Chinese Republic, arrived in Tokio. They expressed their thanks for Japan's participation in the "Five Power Loan", of which the deals were closed a few weeks ago.

PRINCE YAMAGATE ILL

TOKIO, July 2.—Prince Aritomo Yamagata, president of the privy council, is confined in his bed at his summer residence at Odawara, suffering from stomach trouble. A few days ago his condition was so serious that he was unable to take nourishment except liquid foods. The attending physicians today, however, issued an encouraging bulletin stating that the prince is now on the way to recovery.

SERBIA DECLARES WAR ROUMANIA MOBILIZING

Balkans Flaming Into Many-Sided Warfare, with Allies Getting Ready for Hard Fight—Both the Bulgars and Serbs Claim Recent Victory—Greece on Aggressive

[Associated Press Cable] LONDON, Eng., July 3.—The sensation in a series of rapid developments in the war situation today is that Roumania, which has played little active part in the conflicts to date, is mobilizing a large army, apparently ready to take a hand.
Serbia has formally declared war in return for the Bulgarian attacks in Macedonia.
Greece and Bulgaria both continue on the aggressive.
The reports as to the battles in the last week are conflicting, both Serbia and Bulgaria claiming victory in the all-night fighting of Tuesday night.

New Rumpus Threatens To React On Administration

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 3.—Another row threatens to rend the "higher-ups" in administrative circles. Postmaster-General Burleson has notified Postmaster Fisk of this city that he must resign in the interests of greater efficiency in the office, and Fisk has refused to resign, recognizing only the authority of the president, who appointed him.
Burleson retorts that he will remove the postmaster unless he hands in his resignation.

McGraw, Fighting For Pennant Race Lead, Loses His Temper

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 3.—Manager John J. McGraw, famous chief of the New York Nationals, was the center of a row on the ball field today that resulted in his immediate suspension for five days. He engaged in a fist fight with Pitcher Brennan of the Philadelphia Nationals, in which McGraw got the worst of the battle, being knocked out by the big Philly twirler.

Pearl Harbor Drydock Less Damaged Than Was Supposed

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The board of experts which examined the wrecked Pearl Harbor drydock included in its report a statement that the drydock was damaged less seriously than was believed, and that it is hoped to save much of the present structure, obviating the necessity of a floating drydock.

Vancouver Vessel Took Smallpox into Sydney

SYDNEY, N. S. W., July 3.—Smallpox, traced to a vessel that arrived here from Vancouver, has already claimed sixty victims, many of whom are critically ill.

Lamar Behind Steel Trust Probe

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—Henry Martin, of the Anti-Trust League, was a witness today before the committee probing charges of "insidious lobbying." Martin testified that David Lamar, the New York stockbroker, drafted the resolution demanding an inquiry of the steel trust which was introduced by Congressman Stanley. Lamar admitted yesterday impersonating congressmen in telephone messages to Wall street promising to influence legislation.
Martin refused to give the membership of the Anti-Trust League, saying he feared reprisals by the trust.

Jack Johnson May Return

CHICAGO, Ill., July 3.—Federal Judge Carpenter today refused to forfeit the $15,000 bond put up by Jack Johnson, although the colored fighter has fled to Europe since his conviction on the serious charge of transporting a woman for immoral purposes. Judge Carpenter declines to forfeit the bond before the appeal is decided because, he states, the defendant declares that he intends to return to this country if a new trial is refused him.

Ritchie and Anderson Favorites

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 3.—Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion of the world, is a 10 to 8 favorite over Joe Rivers for their fight tomorrow.
From Los Angeles comes word that Bud Anderson, the Vancouver (Wash.) lightweight, is a 10 to 7 favorite over Leach Cross of New York.
They fight in McCarey's pavilion tomorrow.

Progressives Stand Pat

NEWPORT, R. I., July 3.—A national conference of Progressives went on record here today formally as disapproving the proposition to merge the Progressives and Republicans.
The conference set the keynote for an "uncompromising policy."

SPEND THE 4TH AT WAIKIKI INN

There will be some doings at Waikiki Inn on the Glorious Fourth of July. A special dinner will be served on the breeze swept lanai with music by the Hawaiian orchestra, then in the evening one of the popular weekly dances will be given to which all visitors and friends of the Inn are cordially invited. Bring out your families and your best girls and enjoy the cool sea breeze and the excellent dinner, advertisement.

Members of P. H. Brooks Co. 1, Uniform Rank, K. of P., will assemble Friday at 8:30 o'clock sharp at the K.
